*The Jesus Ball
Tuesday June 11th 1985*

Stroll round Cloister Court with its mystic mime, mediaeval dance, fire-eaters and Acker Bilk's moody clarinet. Pause as Paul Daniels intrigues, and relax as the music of Hungarian strings seeps through the early morning air. What else will you discover?

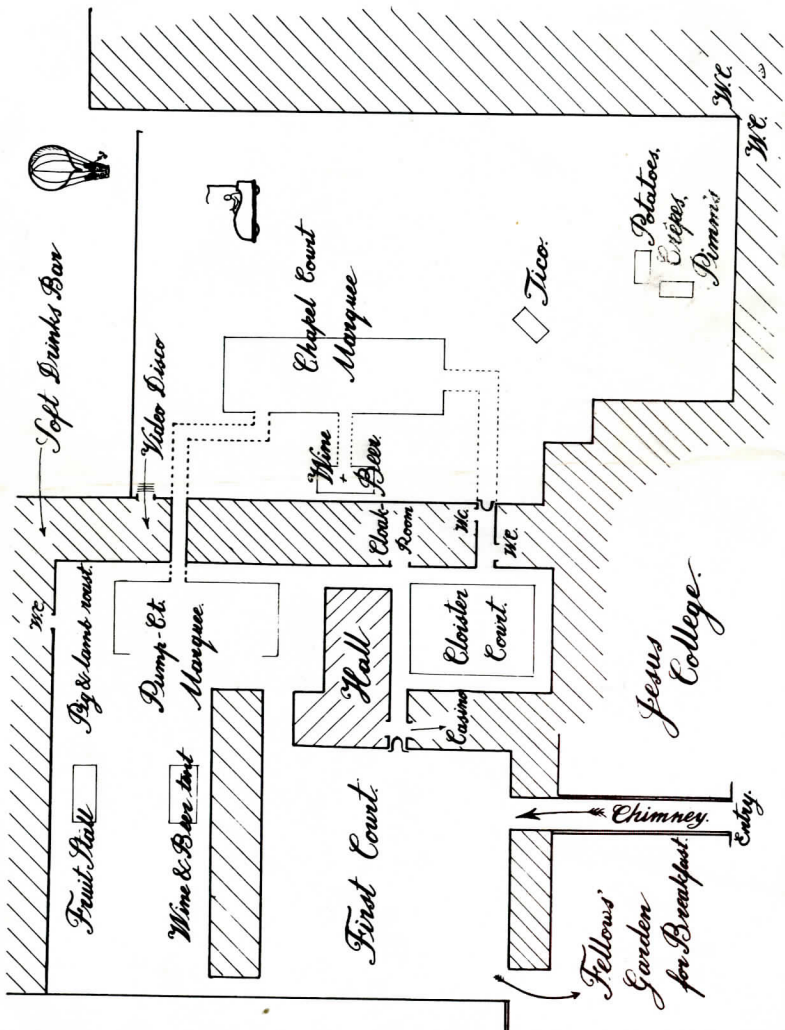

Pina Coladas and a Steel Band welcome those who venture into Hall at 12.30 whilst at 1 a.m. the dice begin to roll in the Casino. However, for those who'd rather play for higher stakes the dodgems can be found not far from the Balloon that beckons only the brave.

In the Soft Drinks Bar triple-thick milkshakes wait to quench your thirst, with coke, lemonade, coffee and fruit juice all on tap ready to restore your vitality. After recovering, relax in the adjoining video disco specialising in only the rarest footage in town.

A portrait artist and photographer are on hand to catch your finest hour whilst the seamstress in the cloakroom will remedy the tatters of a carefree night. Welcome in the morn with breakfast in the Fellows Garden from five... then stagger back to First Court by six for the survivors photo that will prove that you were still standing before MUD.

The Committee would like to thank the Master and Fellows of Jesus College for their kind permission to hold the Ball. The Committee also wishes to show its appreciation to the following: Mike Malley, Alka Seltzer, Tessa Tennant's Balloon Company, BBC, Harvey's, Tico, Pimms Ltd., Cabana, Juliana's Disco and Laser Creations, Muriel Brittain and Lynne Deal.

The May Ball Committee is: Paul Kohler (President), Dr Geoff Harcourt, Jean-Paul Dryden, HRH The Prince Edward, Peter Florence, Mark Hanson, Tamsin Kidd, Jimmy Leach, Ann Ogidi, John Palombo, Georgina Smith, Michele Smith, Jeremy Wilson and Andy Wright.
