READING GROUP

The Merciful Humility of God by Jane Williams

In this short, easy to read Lent guide, theologian Jane Williams draws on biblical texts and the lives of famous figures including Augustine of Hippo, Francis of Assisi, Teresa of Avila and Julian of Norwich, to ask what it means to be human in light of Jesus’ incarnation, crucifixion and resurrection.

All are welcome to join for reflection and discussion via Zoom. For more information and a copy of the book, e-mail Eleanor Lancelot, Assistant Chaplain, at e.lancelot@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

CHAPEL CHARITIES

This term we be collecting online to support the work of Jimmy’s Night Shelter and Romsey Mill. Jimmy’s Night Shelter works with the local community, volunteers, and partner agencies to deliver 24/7 emergency accommodation for the homeless in Cambridge. Romsey Mill is a charity working with young people, children and families in our city and county, overcoming disadvantage, challenging injustice and promoting social inclusion through education and support programmes.
