READING GROUP

THE SPLASH OF WORDS: BELIEVING IN POETRY BY MARK OAKLEY

In this series of short reflections on sacred and secular poems ranging from the 14th century to the present, Mark Oakley explores themes of belief and faith found in poetry alongside poetry's transformative power to cast a different light on the way we see ourselves and the world.

We will meet weekly during term time – all are welcome. For more information and for a copy of the book, please e-mail Assistant Chaplain, Eleanor: e.lancelot@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

GRADUATE TEA

Sunday 23rd May, 4pm

All graduates and their partners and families are invited to a picnic tea on the hockey pitch. Refreshments will be provided. Places are limited – to book, please go to the Chapel Service page on the College website.

WALK AND WAG

On several Saturday afternoons in term, join the Dean and Pippy the beagle (and her four-legged friends) for a stroll down the river over the meadows, to escape worries and workloads.

Dates and booking links will be circulated through your College email.

CHAPEL CHARITIES

This term we be collecting online to support the work of Christian Aid and Centre 33. Centre 33 offer free confidential support to young people in Cambridgeshire and Peterborough with a wide range of issues, including mental health, young carers, housing and sexual health. Christian Aid works globally to support sustainable development, eradicate poverty, foster societal change and provide disaster relief.

THE CHAPEL

Jesus College Chapel has for nine centuries been a place of quiet and contemplation, and it is open to all members of the College community. The clergy are available to all members of the College – of any faith or none – as pastoral advisers; they can also offer information about other faith groups. Contact the Dean of Chapel if you are willing to read lessons, lead intercessions, or help in other ways with services in Chapel. Enquiries regarding the use of the Chapel may be directed to the Secretary to the Dean, at chapel@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

THE CHOIRS

Jesus College has a long and rich tradition of church music, and is distinctive in maintaining two choirs. The College Choir, consisting mostly of students, has a female soprano line whereas the Chapel Choir admits boy trebles from around the city of Cambridge. The lower voices are common to both choirs. Enquiries regarding the choirs may be directed to Alice Kane, Choir and Chapel Office Coordinator, at a.kane@jesus.cam.ac.uk. Alternatively you may wish to visit jesuscollegechoir.com.
