ACCESSING CHAPEL LIFE THIS TERM

As all our lives continue to be affected by the spread of Coronavirus, our College Chapel continues to be a place of prayer, reflection and support to our College community.

Due to health concerns, Chapel services are only open to current members of the College community this term. Spaces are limited, spaced by household, and must be booked online in advance on Eventbrite. Please wear a mask and follow all safety advice and the directions of Chapel Secretaries and Clerks. All services are subject to change according to government restriction and College policy, to keep us all safe.

Sunday services will be available to watch live by video link on the Chapel Facebook page.

CHAPEL CHARITIES

This term, we will be collecting online to support the work of Salmon Youth Centre and Home of Hope, Malawi. Salmon Youth Centre in South London welcomes hundreds of young people from disadvantaged backgrounds and tough circumstances for weekly arts, sports and training projects. Home of Hope is based in Mchinji, Malawi, and offers full-time foster care and primary and secondary education to hundreds of children in need.

Collections are no longer taken in cash, instead please donate online: tinyurl.com/y4o7aboo

WALK AND WAG

On several Saturday afternoons in term, join the Dean and Pippy the beagle (and her four-legged friends) for a stroll down the river over the meadows, to escape worries and workloads.

Dates and booking links will be circulated through your College email.

THE CHAPEL

Jesus College Chapel has for nine centuries been a place of quiet and contemplation, and it is open to all members of the College community. The clergy are available to all members of the College – of any faith or none – as pastoral advisers; they can also offer information about other faith groups. Contact the Dean of Chapel if you are willing to read lessons, lead intercessions, or help in other ways with services in Chapel. Enquiries regarding the use of the Chapel may be directed to the Secretary to the Dean, at chapel@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

THE CHOIRS

Jesus College has a long and rich tradition of church music, and is distinctive in maintaining two choirs. The College Choir, consisting mostly of students, has a female soprano line whereas the Chapel Choir admits boy trebles from around the city of Cambridge. The lower voices are common to both choirs. Enquiries regarding the choirs may be directed to Alice Kane, Choir and Chapel Coordinator, at a.kane@jesus.cam.ac.uk. Alternatively you may wish to visit jesuscollegechoir.com.
