How we use your personal information

-- Staff and Fellows

This statement explains how Jesus College (“we” and “our”) handles and uses information we collect about our staff and Fellows (“you” and “your”). For these purposes, “staff” is intended to include employees, workers and casual workers and contractors (e.g. undergraduate supervisors, ad-hoc or temporary maintenance, kitchen or catering staff etc.) In broad terms, we use your data to manage your employment and/or membership with the College, including your role and the performance of it, how we support you as an employer, and how you are paid, as well as other statutory requirements.

The controller for your personal information is Jesus College, Jesus Lane, Cambridge CB5 8BL. The person responsible for data protection at the time of issue, and the person who is responsible for monitoring compliance with relevant legislation in relation to the protection of personal information, is Dr Richard Anthony, Bursar. (bursar@jesus.cam.ac.uk)

Unless otherwise stated, the legal basis for processing your personal data is that it is necessary for the performance of the employment contract or other agreement we hold with you, or for statutory purposes (e.g. processing your monthly salary, tax and pension contributions).

How your data is used by the College

Your data is used by us for a number of purposes, including:

A. supporting your employment and your performance in your role:

*Personal data includes:

   i) * personal details, including name, contact details (phone, email, postal, both work and personal) and photograph;
   ii) your current and any previous role descriptions;
   iii) your current and any previous contracts of employment and related correspondence;
   iv) any occupational health assessments and medical information you have provided, and related work requirements;
   v) * your training and development qualifications, requests and requirements.

B. ensuring that you have the right to work for the College:

*Personal data includes:

    i) * your recruitment information (including your original application form and associated information submitted at that time);
   ii) other data relating to your recruitment (including your offer of employment and related correspondence, references we took up on your appointment, and any pre-employment assessment of you);
   iii) * evidence of your right to work in the UK (e.g. copies of your passport).

C. paying and rewarding you for your work:

*Personal data includes:

    i) * your bank details;
   ii) * details of your preferred pension scheme;
In addition, we maintain records of your use or take-up of any benefit schemes provided by us (e.g. Medicash), which we collate and monitor to review the effectiveness of these staff benefits. The legal basis for this processing is that it is in our legitimate interest to ensure that any staff benefit schemes represent good value for money to both you and us, and to ensure that you do not overuse your entitlements.

D. administering HR-related processes, including records of absences and regular appraisals of your performance and, where necessary, investigations or reviews into your conduct or performance:

Personal data includes:

i) records of your induction programme and its completion;
ii) records of your performance appraisals with your line manager;
iii) records, where they exist, of any investigation or review into your conduct or performance;
iv) records of absences from work (including but not limited to annual leave entitlement, sickness leave, parental leave and compassionate leave);
v) correspondence between you and the College, and between members and staff of the College, regarding any matters relating to your employment and/or membership and any related issues (including but not limited to changes to duties, responsibilities and benefits, your retirement, resignation or exit from the College and personal and professional references provided by the College to you or a third party at your request).

E. maintaining an emergency contact point for you:

Personal data includes details of your preferred emergency contact, including their name, relationship to you and their contact details.*

F. monitoring equality and diversity within the College:

Personal data includes information relating to your age, nationality and gender.

G. disclosing personal information about you to external organisations, as permitted or required by law.

If you have concerns or queries about any of these purposes, or how we communicate with you, please contact us at the address given below.

Data marked with an * relate to information provided by you, or created in discussion and agreement with you. Other data and information is generated by the College or, where self-evident, provided by a third party.

The College does not routinely access or monitor social media accounts but may do so if we reasonably believe that you have breached the terms and conditions of your employment, or have behaved in a way that brings the College into disrepute. We also reserve the right to investigate any social media posts that are brought to our attention and which we cannot reasonably be expected to ignore.

Please see the relevant section of the Staff Handbook and our social media guidelines which are available at: https://jnet.jesus.cam.ac.uk/jnet/college-information/policies-and-guidelines/communications

We also operate CCTV on our site which will capture footage. Information relating to CCTV are available at: https://jnet.jesus.cam.ac.uk/jnet/college-information/policies-and-guidelines/health-safety-and-welfare/safety-and-security
For certain posts, we may use the Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) and Disclosure Scotland to help assess your suitability for certain positions of trust. If this is the case, we will make this clear to you in separate correspondence. Certificate and status check information is only used for this specific purpose, and we comply fully with the DBS code of Practice regarding the correct use, handling, storage, retention and destruction of certificates and certificate information. We recognise that it is a criminal offence to pass this information on to anyone who is not entitled to receive it.

Who we share your data with

We share relevant personal data with relevant government agencies (e.g. HMRC) and your pension provider. Information is not shared with other third parties without your written consent, other than your name, role and employment contact details which are made publically available. Generally, personal data is not shared outside of the European Economic Area.

We hold all information for the duration of your employment. After that time, we retain your personal data for up to six years after your relationship with the College ends:

We reserve the right to retain the personal data longer than the periods stated above, where it becomes apparent that there is a need to do so – for example, in the event of a major health or personal injury incident, records may need to be kept for up to forty years.

We then keep the following information indefinitely.

i) your full name and title;

ii) your job title(s) or College affiliation(s) and the corresponding dates of employment/membership;

Your rights

You have the right: to ask us for access to, rectification or erasure of your data; to restrict processing (pending correction or deletion); and to ask for the transfer of your data electronically to a third party (data portability). Some of these rights are not automatic, and we reserve the right to discuss with you why we might not comply with a request from you to exercise them.

Failure to provide the information reasonably requested of you may result in disciplinary action taken by the College, which could ultimately lead to your dismissal from employment.

You retain the right at all times to lodge a complaint about our management of your personal data with the Information Commissioner’s Office at https://ico.org.uk/concerns/

March 2018