THE CHAPEL

Jesus College Chapel has for nine centuries been a place of quiet and contemplation, and it is open to all members of the College community. The clergy are available to all members of the College – of any faith or none – as pastoral advisors; they can also offer information about other faith groups. Contact the Dean of Chapel if you are willing to read lessons, lead intercessions, or help in other ways with services in Chapel. Enquiries regarding the use of the Chapel may be directed to Harry Cheatle, Secretary to the Dean, at h.cheatle@jesus.cam.ac.uk.

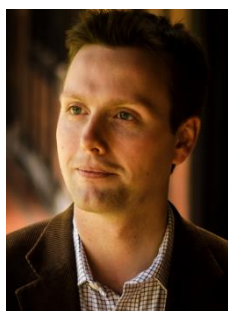

Rev'd Dr Paul Dominiak
Dean of Chapel

THE CHOIRS

Jesus College has a long and rich tradition of church music, and is distinctive in its maintaining two choirs. Male undergraduates make up the 'back row' of each, singing with boy choristers in the Chapel Choir, and female undergraduates in the College Choir. Enquiries regarding the choirs may be directed to Alice Kane, Choir Administrator, at a.kane@jesus.cam.ac.uk. Alternatively you may wish to visit our website at www.jesuscollegechoir.com

CHAPEL CHARITIES

Chapel collections this term will go to support the work of Amos Trust and The Cogwheel Trust. Amos Trust is a small, creative human rights organisation, committed to challenging injustice, building hope and creating positive change. It currently has projects in such places as India, Nicaragua, Tanzania, and South Africa. The Cogwheel Trust exists to provide affordable counselling and psychotherapy to the people of Cambridgeshire, helping many to re-engage with their work, family, relationships and community and to discover a healthier, happier, and more hopeful outlook on life.
